MEET THE CAST ...

MATT WILT (Jack / Stephanie) -- Matt is back on stage here at SLT and finds himself, again, in a dress. Parts of him are shaved, and other parts are not. The devil, dear friends, is in the details.

STORM SMITH (Leo / Maxine) -- Somewhere between purgatory and the theatre, I managed to learn lines. Also learned to not shave legs dry. (Does anyone have a bandaid?)

CHARLOTTE GALLAGHER (Meg) -- Charlotte wants to thank her Sumter Little Theatre family for the opportunity to hop around in pretty dresses. She most recently appeared in our productions of "A Christmas Story," "The Full Monty," "Agnes of God" and "Steel Magnolias." (* Welcome to the world, Audrey! *)

MICHAEL DUFFY (Rev. Duncan) -- This year marks 30 years since Michael first stepped onto the SLT stage. He has been involved in 100+ productions. Whether as actor, director, stage manager, set designer, builder, stage hand, lighting or sound technician, he has thoroughly enjoyed every show. His favorite roles include Elwood Dowd in 'Harvey,' the emcee in 'Cabaret' and Harold in 'The Full Monty.' His favorite takeaway from this 30 years of love's labor is his amazing wife and marvelous muse, Carmela Bryan, with whom he has acted, directed and created a glorious gift of love. Thank you to this awesome cast, crew and director for another chance to walk the boards!

... of LEADING LADIES

DAVID R. BROWN (Doc) -- is so happy to be part of this show. David directed this season's opener, "Driving Miss Daisy," and has played both serious and comedic roles at SLT over the past 30 years. Traci Quinn has assembled a great cast of funny actors and you are in for a night of "ferocious fiddling." Thank you for your patronage.

AMBER COULTER (Audrey) -- OH MY GOSH! Amber (aka "Lambert") just got a brand new pair of roller skates!! Amber has been previously seen in shows at Sumter High and the College of Charleston, but this is her first show with SLT and she is beyond excited. Enjoy!

JOANIE McLEOD (Florence) -- Joanie McLeod lives in Pinewood with her husband, Mac. They have three grown children and three beautiful grandchildren. Joanie has been in several productions at SLT, her latest as Ouiser in "Steel Magnolias." She is happy to be playing the role of crusty old Florence in "Leading Ladies" with a group of wonderful actors. Joanie hopes that everyone will enjoy this hilarious comedy as much as she has enjoyed being in it. Many thanks go to everyone involved with this production and a big "thank you" to Mac for putting up with late-night rehearsals and very late suppers -- he knows how much she loves the theater!

HUNTER CAPPELMANN (Butch/Frank) -- is happy to be back on the SLT stage in this production of "Leading Ladies." He appeared last in "Driving Miss Daisy" as Boolie. Enjoy this amazing production! #sltislife
